

Fluvanna County Public Schools
Local Advisory Committee for Gifted Education

Purpose: The Local Advisory Committee for Gifted Education discusses issues specific to the education of gifted students. The committee reviews the implementation of services according to the local plan with a focus on identification, curriculum development, delivery of services, and professional development. The committee also discusses ways in which opportunities may be made available to students who are not identified as gifted but would benefit from enrichment services. The following committee members were approved by the school board for the 2010-2011 school year.

Committee Member Requirements: Members should possess a strong interest in Fluvanna County Public School's vision of providing a quality program for all gifted students through continuous instruction in Grades K-12 that allows for differentiation in learning. Membership of the Local Advisory Committee shall include parents, teachers, administrators, support staff, and community members and be ethically and geographically representative of the community.
