

Purpose: The School Health Advisory Committee discusses a wide range of health and safety topics and advises the school division on school health issues. The topics may include children with disabilities, mental health, safe and drug-free schools, school nutrition, or family life education. The committee focuses on creating a healthy school environment so students may realize their learning potential.

Committee Member Requirements: Committee members should be concerned about the health of children and adolescents. The committee consists of parents, educators, health professionals, school food service personnel, and representatives of other community and health organizations.
